ANNIE & RENÉ, CARINE, LAURENT
Beaujolais-Villages Blanc

This expression of Chardonnay, a selection from the area named "Les Souzons", benefits from a magnificent granite soil.

" If food represents the body of good living, wine is its spirit. "
Clifton Adiman

Appellation: AOP Beaujolais Villages
Vintage: 2025
Alcohol: 13%
Grape varieties: 100% Chardonnay

Terroir: Silty clay and warm granitic ground with South-Eastern exposure.

Vines: Pruned in simple Guyot form / 7000 roots per hectare / Vines carefully treated as controlled culture / Manuel deleafing.

Vinification methods: Harvested by hand / Whole grapes moderately pressed / Cold static racking / 10% fermented in new oak barrels / 90% fermented in stainless steel tanks / No malolactic fermentation.

Maturing: On fine lees / Bottled in the Spring.

Tasting notes:
Beautiful pale yellow with golden reflections.
Delicate association of white flowers and citrus fruits.
Round, ample and generous, a pulpous matter, which gives the impression of biting directly into the grape. Mouth-watering, mixing noble astringency and fine bitterness, with a lovely after-taste of white fruits and hot butter.

Pairing:
For aperitifs, ideal with grilled fishes and seafood…

Recommendations:
Serve between 10 and 12°C
Aging potential: At least 4 years.
