

Jeff Carrel Vieille Mule Rosé

Easily labelled, because the emblem for the Catalans is the mule, and old because the vines are old, but quite simply because the mule's head looks great on the bottles!

Appellation: IGP Côtes Catalanes

Vintage: 2023

Alcohol: 11.5%

Grape varieties: 60% Grenache Noir / 40% Muscat d'Alexandrie

Terroir: On black marl, clay-schistose scree, called « les Pierres Noires » (Black Stones) / Mediterranean climate, 25km from the sea.

Vines: Over 30 years old / Density of the plantation between 3300 and 4000 roots per ha / Pruned dependent on the vintages / Low yield of approximately 50 hl/ha.

Vinification methods: Grapes regrouped directly in the press / Directly pressed / Whole harvest cold maceration / Cold racking / Fermentation at very low temperatures.

Maturing: On lees when cold / No malolactic fermentation.

Tasting notes:

An incredible gold colour.

Great aromas.

Pairing:

For apérisssssssss!

Recommendations:

Serve at 13°C

Aging potential: At least 5 years.